ATTEND THE FAIR

Next Wednesday, September 28th, is visitors' day at the Saanich Fair, and as this is the 70th annual exhibition the fair committee is seeking the co-operation of all citizens of the Saanich Peninsula and Gulf Islands to make the undertaking an outstanding success.

The Sidney Businessmen's Association's members have agreed to close their business places during Wednesday afternoon in order that they and their employees can be present at the fair.

Showing a spirit of co-operation from Salt Spring Island Captain Maude is making a special trip with the "Cy Peck" in order that the citizens of the big island desiring to attend may have an opportunity of doing so. Special rates will be allowed. The "Cy Peck" will leave Fulford at 8:15 a.m. and on the return voyage will leave Swartz Bay at 7 p.m., on Wednesday, September 28th, visitors' day at the Saanich Fair.

The Saanich Fair, as we have often said before, has a record to be proud of. It is also the oldest agricultural fair west of the Great Lakes.

A few weeks ago fire destroyed considerable equipment and a number of livestock buildings and the fair committee was faced with a difficult problem. However, at a special meeting of the directors it was decided to immediately rebuild, and accordingly work has been rushed on the buildings and same will be in readiness for the swine, goats, rabbits, poultry, cattle, etc.

We can all help to make the fair a success by putting in an appearance — and all who can, by making as many entries as possible.

Prize lists are available from the secretary, Stuart G. Stoddart, Saanichton (phone Keating 8-R) or at the Review Office.

HATS OFF TO MR. MASON

Joseph Mason, of Mason's Exchange, Beacon Avenue, has set a lot of people talking — and in an appreciative manner, too, as we can vouch for!

Mr. Mason has brought about a transformation of the property on the southwest corner of Beacon Avenue and Fifth Street, which he acquired some few months ago. It is this transformation that people are talking about! When Mr. Mason acquired the property it was run-down, in a state of disrepair, with a collection of miscellaneous out-buildings and piles of junk and whatnot littering the landscape. Today the premises are cleaned up, spick and span, the dwelling has been repaired, painted and stained, the collection of small buildings removed and the debris and junk removed, the yard being tidy and clean.

Mr. Mason has set an example that many of us might follow to the improvement of Beacon Avenue and our town.

Hats off to Mr. Mason!

DRAMATIC CLUB FORMED ON PENDER

PENDER ISLAND, Sept. 21.—A meeting was held on Wednesday, Sept. 14th, at 8:15 p.m., in the Hope Bay Hall to discuss the organization of a dramatic club.

After much discussion, it was agreed that the club be known as the "Pender Dramatic Club."

Officers were elected as follows: President—Mr. Bimney; First Vice-President—Mrs. Reddy; Second Vice-President—Mrs. Keiller.

Treasurer—Mr. Red Adams; Secretary—Mrs. Spradue.

SUPPER MEETING OCTOBER 12

The committee of the Men's Supper Group met on Monday evening and elected Rev. D. M. Perley as chairman.

Arrangements were made to hold the first meeting of the group on Wednesday, October 12th. Keep the date open. Further particulars to speaker later.

DEMONSTRATE PRODUCT AT FAIR

Local Boys Show Use Of "Puncture Seal" In Victoria Show

Among the many products of interest demonstrated at the Provincial Exhibition last week was that of "Puncture Seal," a product being handled by Boden Storey and Hugh Wylie, both local boys.

This "Puncture Seal" is a manufactured article to give puncture protection to any make of tire, and those who have had tires serviced claim it is a wonderful asset to safety driving.

A guessing contest held during fair week was won by Mrs. Owen Thomas of Sidney, who received first place and received the servicing of a car with "Puncture Seal." Other winners were R. L. Eccles, 2421 Chambers St., Victoria; B. Torrance, 428 Durham St., Victoria; Milton Towers, Sidney; E. Thompson, 375 Walter Avenue, Victoria.

The correct number of nails in the jar was 2,874 and the nearest guess 2,873.

The boys have their headquarters at Downman's Garage, Johnson Street, Victoria.

WINNERS IN LIVE STOCK AT FAIR

Exhibits in all classes at the Provincial Exhibition held in Victoria during the past week were well up to the mark this year and residents of the Saanich Peninsula were among those winning prizes, etc., in the cattle exhibit.

The grand championship and senior championship for Jersey bulls was carried off by Brampton Favorite Sport, exhibited by Ian Douglas, Saanichton. The junior Jersey bull championship was won by Ian Douglas's Signalman's Successor.

Other class awards were as follows:

Bull, three years or over — 1, Brampton Favorite Sport, Ian Douglas, Saanichton; and 3, Signalman's Chief, A. W. Aylard, Sidney.

Bull, two years — 1, Babbarombe Standard's Sepoy, C. F. Gibson, Sidney.

Yearling Bull — 1, Signalman's Successor, Ian Douglas, Saanichton; 2, Babbarombe Volage Bundle, H. E. Burbridge, Royal Oak.

Douglas Lawson, a member of the Saanich Jersey Calf Club, carried off first place honors in the individual class in the junior calf club section.

E. Hodgson of Patricia Farm, Patricia Bay, who recently purchased the famous imported Clydesdale horse Crusader from the Duke of Windsor's R-P Ranch, had this horse on display on Wednesday.

CHICAGO MAN BUYS SALT SPRING HOME

Sale of a 500-acre property and home on Salt Spring Island to John Kellogg, wealthy Chicago business man, has been completed according to information released in Victoria on Tuesday.

The property was that owned by Olive French and is situated on the north end of Salt Spring Island overlooking Sansum Narrows, a popular coast fishing spot.

The amount involved in the sale was not disclosed.

Mr. Kellogg has been in the Sidney district looking around for the past several months.

South Salt Spring Institute Meets

FULFORD, Sept. 21.—The regular meeting of the South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute was held Thursday, Sept. 8th, at the home of Mrs. R. McLennan, the vice-president. Mrs. McLennan, presiding. Nine members were present.

Not given to the dental clinic was approved by all members present.

It was decided that the institute would contribute more if necessary.

Ten hostesses were Mrs. R. McLennan and Mrs. Akerman.

EXTENSION WORK PLANNED

Miss Gertrude Straight Now Director Of New Work At Alma College

An interesting innovation at the Alma College, St. Thomas, Ont., this year is the extension service planned to give residents of the county, and Miss Gertrude Straight, Mus. Bac., L.R.S.M., A.T.C.M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Straight of the local Experimental Station, has received the appointment as director and is already in residence at the college and busy with the preliminary arrangements for the opening of the new departments.

There are five sections in the work offered — dramatics, handicrafts, lectures, music and recreation.

Miss Straight will direct all departments and will take charge of the department of music personally. In the other departments she will be assisted by the staff of the college and others with special talent in certain subjects.

Miss Straight has already started the organization of a young women's group in music in St. Thomas to be known as the Alma Singers to be specially trained to assist in demonstration work.

ENTRIES FOR SAANICH FAIR COMING IN

SAANICHTON, Sept. 21.—Entries are now being received for the Saanich Fair and indications point to a good entry list.

In order to assist the directors and Committees in charge of the section, it is urged that all entries be made as early as possible.

It is also pointed out that exhibitors are requested to comply with the following instructions: such as forwarding floor receipts with entry form, etc. This will avoid unnecessary delay and perhaps disqualification, and will also facilitate the handling of entries.

Send for prize list to the secretary, Stuart G. Stoddart, Saanichton, or call in at the Review Office.

British Columbia Growers Demand Immediate Action

A. N. Primeau, of Sidney, called a meeting of vegetable and fruit growers at the Dominion Hotel, Victoria, on Friday, September 16th, the outcome of which resulted in a delegation of determined men waiting on Dr. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, to demand an investigation into the alleged "Jobber-Shipper Combine."

When Dr. MacDonald realized the seriousness of the situation he assured the delegation that he would do everything in his power to have this matter taken up at Ottawa, in the Federal House.

As far back as last February serious charges, under sworn affidavit, were presented to the Government at Ottawa and as no action was taken, the growers, who are organizing strongly, prepared to present the charges to the general public from coast to coast, as this is of such serious concern to consumer as well as producer.

The producers have called a meeting at Fort Langley for Wednesday, October 5th, which will be representative of growers from all over British Columbia, including a strong delegation from Vancouver Island.

Those present at the meeting were W. L. Dence, Fort Langley; Arthur Smith and H. P. Auberry, Comox; Hugh Campbell, Victoria; C. J. Wright, Lakehill; Larry Hagan and Lorne Thomson, Brentwood Bay; George T. Michell and A. N. Primeau, Sidney.

Following is a partial list of the charges covered by an affidavit signed by J. H. Reader, relative to the alleged combine:

MISS KELLY IS MARRIED IN OAK BAY

Pender Island Girl Is Bride Of Mr. Francis G. Wheatley

A wedding of interest to many of our readers took place Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, when Rev. R. D. Porter of Mayne Island, uncle of the bridegroom, assisted by Ven. Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn, united in marriage Dorothy Constance (Soo), daughter of Mrs. S. A. Kelly, of South Pender Island, and the late Mr. Sydney A. Kelly, and Mr. Francis Gwynne Wheatley, of Port Alberni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Wheatley, of Vancouver, formerly of Maple Creek, Sask.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Fitzroy Kelly, of Los Angeles, the bride was a charming figure in her gown of transparent ivory velvet, fashioned on lines of almost classic simplicity, with a cowl neckline, long tight-fitting sleeves, and the graceful floor-length skirt flaring at the back into a brief train. Her filmy veil of silk net was attached to her head with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of Calla lilies.

Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Kitty Lake, of Victoria, in a pretty frock of pale blue net, fashioned with skirt flaring from the hips and semi-fitting bodice. Her hat of silk mohair matched her gown, with the crown formed of flowers in pastel shades, and she carried an early Victorian posy of flowers in pastel shades.

Mr. David Howden, of Port Alberni, was groomsmen.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Sir Richard and Lady Lake, Oak Bay.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Wheatley left on a motor trip through Washington and Oregon states, and on their return will make their home in Port Alberni.

For travelling, the bride, who is an enthusiastic weaver, wore a suite of homespun of her own handiwork in arbutus shade with brown overcheck, a primrose yellow jersey and a fur felt hat in brown trimmed with a suede band to match.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fyfe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fladgate and Mrs. C. Millener, all of Vancouver.

days' visit to North Salt Spring, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. Case Morris.

Mr. Charles Tolson of Saanich arrived last Friday at Ganges, where he is the guest for some days of his cousin, Mr. Desmond Crofton.

Recent guests at Harbour House Hotel, Ganges, were Sir Charles Hastings, New York; Commander May, California; R. Murray, Victoria, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ching, Victoria.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Taken From Review Of Friday, Sept. 19, 1913

GANGES—The 18th annual exhibition of the Ganges Agricultural Society took place Wednesday, Sept. 17th, at Ganges Harbour. From start to finish the show was an unprecedented success, and was patronized by farmers from all parts of the island . . . the gates showing record entry.

SAANICHTON—The North and South Saanich Agricultural Society is doing all in its power to make a record show, but arrangements have been somewhat delayed owing to negotiations for horse racing not being complete. . . . The beautiful new hall is, of course in Saanichton, and is in a most central position, being served by two lines of railway.

SIDNEY—The St. Andrew's Junior Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to Missions is giving a garden party in Mr. Des Barres grounds tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. A. Raynes, of South Salt Spring Island, the Dominion Government pile-driving expert, and his gang of men are now busily engaged in building the new wharf at Roberts' Bay. . . . The wharf is 974 feet long . . . and a large float, 32 x 29, will be built at the end.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. J. Rea, of Sidney, on Wednesday, Sept. 17th, a son.

The first deer of the season were brought into town on Monday evening by Messrs. Wilfred Harrison and A. E. Simpson. They spent the day on Mount Newton and were fortunate in securing one specimen each.

To fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. Calvert, who has removed to Victoria, the members of the Sidney Lodge, I.O.G.T., at the meeting held on Monday evening, elected Miss R. A. Simister to the office of Chief Templar for the balance of the present term.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Branch met at the home of Mrs. Perrier, Brentwood Bay, on Monday, Sept. 19th, at 8 p.m., Mrs. North, president, in the chair.

There were 22 members and two visitors present.

The meeting was called to order on time, the silent tribute to the dead being observed and the formal prayer being read in unison.

The resignation of Mrs. F. James on removal to Vancouver was accepted. Mrs. Freeman King was appointed secretary in her place.

Visits to the sick were reported by Mrs. Philip E. Brethour.

The official report of the 10th B.C. Convention at Vancouver was read by Mrs. King.

Mrs. James, who went as delegate from the branch sent a further report which was read by the president.

Two letters were read from the Legion Branch, the first giving the Women's Auxiliary the opportunity of entering for their annual dinner and dance. The second letter asked for assistance in the sale and distribution of poppies.

After considerable discussion it was decided to accept the offer to enter for the dinner. A committee was appointed to meet the men and submit plans.

With regard to the poppy campaign, Mrs. King undertook to organize the North Saanich district and Mrs. W. Douglas the South Saanich district.

Mrs. Ricketts, sr., read the initiation ceremony and addressed the meeting on the general aims and objects of a Women's Auxiliary.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered by the meeting to Mrs. Ricketts.

The meeting was closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Perrier, being a good finish to a busy evening.
